

Application to the UW-Madison AT program requires a two-step process; please read with care.

ATCAS

Complete the four sections in ATCAS following directions carefully. Please search in the ATCAS Help Center to check if you qualify for fee waiver. Contact the Graduate Office with questions, especially if you have questions regarding pre-requisites or course equivalencies

- 1. You are not required to submit GRE scores as part of your application.
- 2. In the Program Materials section, please be sure to write an essay that addresses the specific question under writing sample. This essay should be different than your personal statement.
- 3. Documentation forms for observation hours can be found on the UW-Madison AT Program apply to the program web page
 - a. We recognize that the COVID pandemic may prevent completion of this requirement. Please reach out to Dr. Winterstein as this will not prevent students from applying for the current cohort.

UW-Madison Grad School Application

- 1. Go to apply.grad.wisc.edu and create an account or log-in with your existing NetID.
- 2. Enter your personal and citizenship information.
- 3. Select the appropriate summer term and Athletic Training MS
- 4. Enter all previous post-secondary education and upload unofficial transcripts
- 5. Upload your statement and CV/resume
 - a. The athletic training program requires a personal statement. Your personal statement should discuss your reasons for pursuing a career in athletic training and future professional healthcare goals. One to two pages is considered an appropriate length for the personal statement.
 - b. A current CV or resume
- 6. Enter contact information for at least 3 individuals to serve as your references
 - a. Name
 - b. Email
 - c. Phone Number
- 7. Enter funding information
- 8. Complete residency information
- 9. Sign, pay fee, and submit application
 - a. A limited number of fee waivers are available contact Dr. Winterstein prior to paying your fee to inquire about availability of waivers.